Unit 3

Name:
Date:
Date.

Reader's Notebook

Body Organs: Your Lungs

Before Reading

1.

After previewing Your Lungs, list on one side what you know about the heart, and on the other side, list any questions you may have. Examples have been provided.

What I know about the lungs	Questions I have about the lungs
They help us breathe.	How much air do they hold?
They take in oxygen.

Did any of the facts you listed on your chart make you think of new questions to ask?

ADLC | Language Arts 5 | Unit 3

During Reading 1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is 2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was	2.	Does knowing more about a topic or less about a topic help you think of new questions to ask?
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is
1. The most important idea in the first paragraph is	Dunin	a Dandina
	Dunn	g Reading
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was	1.	The most important idea in the first paragraph is
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
2. One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was
	2.	One detail that surprised me in the first paragraph was

	ts did you learr
Mhat naw au	estions do you	havo?
qu
Are there any	Cause and Eff	ect words?

ADLC | Language Arts 5 | Unit 3

ine most	mportant idea in the	e second para	ıgraph is
One detail	that surprised me i	n the second	paragraph was	S
Th		. Hainal a ana ann	anda ia me most	mportant idea in the	e third paragra	apn is nat surprised me in the third paragraph was.

ist a Cause	e and Effect relationship that you want to re	member.
	lentifying specific details help you understar	id key ideas?
low does id
low does ic
low does ic	and the second second mark you and distant
How does ic

ADLC | Language Arts 5 | Unit 3

12.	What happens to your breathing when you exercise? Why do you think this happens?
A C1
After	Reading
1.	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information, identify key details, and understand and remember information?
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,
	How did asking questions and rereading for specific details help you to learn new information,