

Unit 3

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reader's Notebook

Your Eyes, Your Voice, Even Your Smell - Your New ID

Before Reading

1. What do you think this selection will be about?

Possible answers include: ways to identify yourself, new technology.

2. What do you think is meant by the title?

Possible answers include: new ways to identify yourself rather than a driver's license or a birth certificate.

3. What forms of ID do you have or know about?

Possible answers include: see above.

4. Why is it important to have information about a person's identity?

Possible answers include: if someone gets lost or goes missing, it will be easier to find them if you can identify them.

After Reading

1. What did you learn about the body from reading this selection?

Possible answers include: there are more than 200 bones in the body, there is cartilage, bones are hard on the outside, soft on the inside.

2. What features of an explanation are used in this selection?

Possible answers include: diagrams with labels, subheadings, cause and effect relationship.

3. Draw a diagram of one of the ID technologies from the selection.

Possible answers include: looking to ensure students have a solid understanding of the technology explained.