| Name: |  |  |
|-------|--|--|
| Date: |  |  |

Reader's Notebook

By the Numbers: Fun Facts About Our Bodies

|        | _ |      | 11   |
|--------|---|------|------|
| Lotoro | ப |      | lina |
| Before | п | Hall |      |
|        |   |      |      |

| 1.    | What did the visuals prompt you to think about?   |
|-------|---|
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
| 2.    | What do you think the author wants the reader to think or do when they read the information? Explain your thinking. |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
| Durin | g Reading   |
| 1.    | Jot down any facts that you find particularly interesting.  |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |
|       |   |

After Reading

| l .         | ct fascinated you the  |                   |                |              |            |
|-------------|------------------------|-------------------|----------------|--------------|------------|
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
| Mhat curpri | sing information did y | you find out abou | it the body?   |              |            |
|             |                        |                   | it tile body : |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
| Why do you  | think the author uses  | words like almo   | ost and nearly | when quoting | number fac |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |
|             |                        |                   |                |              |            |

| Example  | :   |      |  |  |  |
|----------|---|------|--|--|--|
| gvgphote | 3 muscles to frown, and seventeen to smile. I got this information from: http://webdesign.com/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=101:-interesut-the-human-body-for-kids&catid=47:fact&Itemid=50 | stin |  |  |  |
|          | a baby is born without kneecaps. They appear between age two and six. I got this information from: http://funny2.com/factsbody.htm  |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |
|          |   |      |  |  |  |

Write down the facts you find. Make sure to give the website that provided you with the 4.