

Unit 4

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reader's Notebook

Read with a Purpose

Before Reading

- Which sentences are facts and which sentences are opinions?

The sun will come up tomorrow.
Cars is the best movie ever made!
The brown teddy bear is cute.
An apple grows on a tree.
The tastiest apples are green.

During Reading

- Why do people want to know what other people think?

Want something to base their own opinions on, are interested in what people they admire or respect think.

- Why do we read peoples' opinions?

To find out what others think about an issue.

After Reading

1. Name an opinion article, editorial or a review you have read or seen, and explain what was it about.

Answers will vary, but could include sports show, school newspaper, other newspaper, magazine article, Internet article, entertainment show.

2. What was the writer's or speaker's opinion?

Answers will vary based on above.

3. What were the main points? Did you agree?

Answers will vary based on above.

4. Make a list of people whose opinion you like to read or listen to. Explain why you like to read or listen to them.

Could include media personality, reporter, sports figure.