n	it	1

Name:
Date:

Reader's Notebook

Hoops

Before Reading

What is the selection about? How do you know?
What form is the selection written in? How can you tell?
What form is the selection written in? How can you tell?
What predictions can you make about the content or ideas of the selection?

During Reading

V	What are two examples of similes from the poem?
L
_
R	eading
٧	What is the poem mostly about?
Γ
\ 	What is important to the speaker about playing basketball? How do you know?

Vhat does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
Vhat does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?
What does the	speaker see, he	ear, and feel in	the poem?	