Effective Sentences

The Mounties

Write two examples from the report you read in the Symbols of Canada lesson for each of these categories.

Sentences that are different lengths:

1. Changes were happening fast there; As more people came, crime increased; Today, this police force is as important as it was then.
2. During the 1870s, the land that is now Alberta and Saskatchewan was part of a larger region called the North-West Territories; The men had to be able to ride a horse, be of good character, and be strong and healthy; People around the world recognize the scarlet jacket, Stetson hat, and polished boots as symbols of Canada's national police force.

Sentences that start in different ways:

1. Most people know...; During the 1870s...; The men...; Over the years...; Today...; Together...

Sentences that use conjunctions (linking words):

1. They represent Canada's idea of peace, justice, fairness, and order.

2. The men had to be able to ride a horse, be of good character, and be strong and healthy.
