

Canadian Person Report Rubric

Criteria	Excellent 5	Proficient 4	Satisfactory 3	Limited 2
Evidence of Research /5	Report clearly demonstrates that a comprehensive amount of research has occurred.	Report demonstrates that a significant amount of research has occurred.	Report demonstrates that a satisfactory amount of research has occurred.	Report demonstrates that little or no research has occurred.
Ideas /5	The report presents a rich and detailed description of the chosen Canadian.	The report presents a thorough description of the chosen Canadian.	The report presents a suitable description of the chosen Canadian.	The report presents an incomplete or vague description of the chosen Canadian.
Word Choice /5	The report engages the audience by creating clear images or emotions.	The report engages the audience by presenting a logical sequence of information.	The report engages the audience by presenting reasonable information.	The report does not engage the audience.
Form and Organization /5	The report has a compelling introduction and purposeful body paragraphs.	The report has a convincing introduction and relevant body paragraphs.	The report has a reasonable introduction and appropriate body paragraphs.	The report may or may not have an introduction and/or body paragraphs.
Point of View /5	Report is written from a consistent point of view throughout.	Report is written from a thoughtful point of view.	Report is mostly written from one point of view.	The point of view of the report may be hard to identify.
Sentences /5	Length and type of sentences are varied skillfully throughout the report.	Length and type of sentences are varied in the report.	Length and type of some sentences are varied.	There is little or no variation in sentence length or type.
Conventions /5	Report demonstrates an accurate understanding of standard writing conventions (spelling, punctuation, capitalization etc).	Report demonstrates a good understanding of most standard writing conventions (spelling, punctuation, capitalization etc).	Report demonstrates a basic understanding of standard writing conventions (spelling, punctuation, capitalization etc).	Report demonstrates a more work is necessary on standard writing conventions (spelling, punctuation, capitalization etc).
Voice /5	The report maintains an engaging point of view throughout.	The report maintains a consistent point of view throughout.	The report generally maintains a consistent point of view throughout.	The point of view of the report is inconsistent.
Redo	Your attempt to respond does not meet acceptable standards. Contact your teacher to discuss suggestions for improvement and resubmission of this assignment.
Total: /40
Assessment	Areas of Strength:
	Target for Improvement:			