

Unit 2

Vocabulary Words

Layout:

the arrangement of words and space in a picture

Onomatopoeia:

the use of words whose sound suggest any of the five senses

Symbol:

a letter, character or sign used instead of a word to express an idea

Message:

communication with others with the use of writing, pictures, speech or by signals

Graphics:

presenting a picture of something in words or images on a computer, paper, wall, or other surface

Body Language:

using your facial expression, gestures, and movements with your body to express yourself

Communicate:

to send information or feelings from one person to another through messages

Caption:

an explanation or description that is shown in a pictorial illustration like a cartoon or photograph

Image:

a picture produced on photographic material digitally on a computer

