Unit 3

Name:

Date:

Reader's Notebook: Canadian Habitat Heroes

Questions for Canadian Habitat Heroes

Write your responses to the questions below.

Hero #1

1   What is the person's name?

> Mairuth Sarsfield.

2   What did he or she do to deserve to be called a hero? (One or two sentences for each one should be enough to explain what they did.)

> Organized an event to get children to plant trees in many countries.

3   What details were included in the story that made the story interesting?

> Information about forests being cut down, UN Environmental Program, name of the event (For Every Child A TRee), financing.

Hero #2

1   What is the person's name?

> Mike James.

2   What did he or she do to deserve to be called a hero? (One or two sentences for each one should be enough to explain what they did.)

> Got volunteers to free leatherback turtles caught in nets.

3   What details were included in the story that made the story interesting?

> Size of turtles, how they got caught, where they live, turtle's breathing, where (Nova Scotia), teaching volunteers.

Hero #3

1   What is the person's name?

> Natalie Helferty.

2   What did he or she do to deserve to be called a hero? (One or two sentences for each one should be enough to explain what they did.)

> Got governments to create pathways for wildlife to cross highways.

3   What details were included in the story that made the story interesting?

> How the animals get hurt, why, what animals.

Hero #4

1   What is the person's name?

> Andy Carpenter.

2   What did he or she do to deserve to be called a hero? (One or two sentences for each one should be enough to explain what they did.)

> Establiched Auliavik and Ivvavik National Parks.

3   What details were included in the story that made the story interesting?

> He's a skillful hunter and trapper, code of Inuit people re: taking of animals, noticed and documented changes by oil companies affecting animals, helped with action plan to protect polar bears.

Save Your File

Name your file in this format: jsmith_canadianhabitatheroes and save your file to your Documents folder.