Ideas in a News Article

Use this organizer to summarize information you read, hear, or view in a news article. Also, use it to develop ideas for your own articles.

Title of your article:	Creating Visions
-------------------------------	------------------

	Notes
Who?	It is about eleven-year-old Molly Burke.
What?	She creates pottery using her hands and she cannot see very well.
Where?	She takes lessons at Blink Kids Art.
When?	She attends through the year, once a week.
Why?	She wants to learn how to do different things on her own.
Interesting details in the written text (the paragraphs)	Molly's hobbies include acting and singing, playing drums, horseback riding, and downhill skiing.
Interesting details in the photographs	Creating pottery looks difficult, especially with limited sight. The article includes lots of detail and is interesting.

How does the opening sentence or paragraph hook the audience?

Readers want to know how a person's hands can help him or her see. (Such a statement makes the reader want to know how that can be done.)
