Questions for Drumheller Dinosaur Dance

Write your responses to the questions below.

Before Reading

Write down two or three predictions and clues about the poem before you read. Question: "Where would you go to see a dinosaur dance?"

Predictions and Thoughts	Clues I used	What I learned
Could this be a play performance?	The dinosaurs look like puppets on a string.

During Reading

Use these questions to help guide your answers for the "What I Learned" column:

1 How does this poem match with your predictions?

2 What do you like about it?

3 A refrain is the part of the poem that repeats itself (it is in big capital letters and starts Boomity-boom). How is using the refrain in the poem effective to show what the poem is about?

After Reading

After looking at the dinosaur website, answer the following question below:

- 1 What makes the Badlands a good place for a dinosaur dance?
