Date:

Reader's Notebook: Buried Treasures

Before Reading

Preview both "Gold Rush" and "Oak Island Money Pit". Answer the following questions:

1.	What do you know about either of these events in history?
2.	Notice how the information is organized and presented. How might you go about reading it?

During Reading

Read both of these selections then answer the questions below. The first section is for "Gold Rush" and the second section is for "Oak Island Money Pit".

Gold Rush
1.	What is the main point of interest?

2.	What do you think the title means?
3.	How does the writer show the order of events?

Oak Island Money Pit

1.	What is the main point of interest?
2.	What do you think the title means?
3.	How does the writer show the order of events?

After Reading

Respond to the following:

1.	What kind of evidence tells you that these things really happened?
2.	How can you check to find out if they happened?

Practise summarizing events from the Gold Rush. Look at the date below, find the caption in your book and type a one sentence summary of the event from that date in the box.

Some of the dates have more than one event. Pick one of these events to write a one sentence summary.
