INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMITTING THIS DISTANCE LEARNING ASSIGNMENT BOOKLET

When you are registered for distance learning courses, you are expected to regularly submit completed assignments for correction. Try to submit each Assignment Booklet as soon as you complete it. Do not submit more than one Assignment Booklet in one subject at the same time. Before submitting your Assignment Booklet, please check the following:

- Are all the assignments completed? If not, explain why.
- Has your work been reread to ensure accuracy in spelling and details?
- Is the booklet cover filled out and the correct module label attached?

MAILING

1. Do not enclose letters with your Assignment Booklets. Send all letters in a separate envelope.
2. Put your Assignment Booklet in an envelope and take it to the post office and have it weighed. Attach sufficient postage and seal the envelope.

FAXING

1. Assignment Booklets may be faxed to the school with which you are registered. Contact your teacher for the appropriate fax number.
2. All faxing costs are the responsibility of the sender.

E-MAILING

It may be possible to e-mail your completed Assignment Booklet to the school with which you are registered. Contact your teacher for the appropriate e-mail address.

ASSIGNMENT BOOKLET 2A

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS 30-2: MODULE 2

SECTION 1 ASSIGNMENT AND SECTION 2 ASSIGNMENT

Your mark for this module will be determined in part by how well you do your assignments.

This Assignment Booklet is worth 100 marks out of the total 200 marks for the assignments in Module 2. The value of each assignment and each question is stated in the left margin.

Work slowly and carefully. If you have difficulty, go back and review the appropriate topic. Be sure to proofread your answers carefully.

You're encouraged to use a computer for these assignments. If you use a computer, submit a printed copy that has been carefully proofread. Include your name, course name, and assignment question number on each page.

3. Each of the following quotations is taken from the story “There Will Come Soft Rains.” Explain the significance of the quotation (its relevance in the story).

a. “But no doors slammed, no carpets took the soft tread of rubber heels.” (page 39)

---

---

---

---

---

b. “At night the ruined city gave off a radioactive glow which could be seen for miles.” (page 40)

---

---

---

---

---

c. “The house was an altar with ten thousand attendants, big, small, servicing, attending, in choirs. But the gods had gone away, and the ritual of the religion continued senselessly, uselessly.” (page 40)

---

---

---

---

---

d. “The dog, once huge and fleshy, but now gone to bone and covered with sores, moved in and through the house, tracking mud.” (page 41)

---

---

---

---

---

- e. “The house shuddered, oak bone on bone, its bared skeleton cringing from the heat, its wire, its nerves revealed as if a surgeon had torn the skin off to let the red veins and capillaries quiver in the scalded air.” (page 44)

4. a. In the story “The Fun They Had,” the author presented a vision of a futuristic type of education. Describe how Margie and Tommy were being educated.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

⑤

- b. What advantages and disadvantages do you see in this type of education? Your response will be evaluated using the Journal Assessment Criteria in Module 1.

[illegible]

5. In this lesson, you thought about irony. Here’s a brief description of the plots of two famous short stories. For each plot, explain how you would end the story with an ironic twist.
- a. Two criminals decide to raise money by kidnapping the grandson of a wealthy man. While they’re holding the boy, waiting for the ransom to be paid, they discover that the boy is a mischievous brat.
- b. A young woman borrows an expensive necklace to wear to a party. Unfortunately, she loses the necklace before she can return it to its owner. Embarrassed, she and her husband borrow money and replace the necklace. They spend many years working to repay the loan.

6. In this lesson, you learned some strategies to help you determine the themes of stories. Explain why the following sentences are inappropriate examples of thematic statements. Then create an improved version of each one.
- a. Pride goes before a fall.

---

---

---

---

- b. People shouldn’t judge others by their appearances.

---

---

---

---

---

When you’ve completed this question, return to page 23 in the Student Module Booklet.

- 7. In what way is the ending of the story “Risk” ironic?

---

---

---

---

---

- 8. Reread the poem “Curiosity” in your Student Module Booklet. Then respond to the following questions.
  - a. The poet says “Curiosity will not cause us to die—only lack of it will.” In what sense does lack of curiosity cause people to die?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2

- b. Reread the last four lines of the poem. What insight into human life is the poet presenting in these lines?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

When you’ve completed this question, return to page 31 in the Student Module Booklet.

5

- 9. Consider the characters in the story “Supertoys Last All Summer Long.” Are you sympathetic toward them and their problems? Write a personal response in which you discuss your feelings toward the four characters in the story. Your response will be evaluated using the Journal Assessment Criteria in Module 1.

Section 2: The Working World

Read all parts of your assignment carefully and record your answers in the appropriate places.

10

1. In this lesson, you read two essays. Now turn to page 78 in Between the Lines 12, and read the essay called “The Hidden Songs of a Secret Soul” by Bob Greene. Then respond to the following questions in complete sentences or short paragraphs.

a. What is Bob Greene’s purpose in writing this essay?

---

---

---

---

---

b. How is Lenny’s attitude toward his job different from the students’ attitude?

---

---

---

---

---

c. Why is Lenny so secretive about his poetry?

---

---

---

---

---

- d. Describe Bob Greene’s tone in this essay. (In other words, what is his attitude toward his subject?) Find two quotations in the essay to support your answer.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

- e. What insight into life and human behaviour did you gain from reading this essay?

---

---

---

---

---

When you’ve completed this question, return to page 42 in the Student Module Booklet.

2. Think about Charles Finn’s essay “The Dignity of Work” and Alden Nowlan’s poem “Warren Pryor.” If Charles Finn and Warren Pryor could have a conversation about work, would their ideas be similar or different?

Pretend that you’re interviewing Charles Finn and Warren Pryor. Write two questions that you would ask them about work. Then pretend that you’re Finn and Pryor, and write the answers that you think they would give.

Each interview question is worth one mark. Each answer that you imagine the writers would give is worth 2 marks.

| Your Interview Questions | Charles Finn’s Reply | Warren Pryor’s Reply |
|--------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| Question 1:              |                      |                      |
| Question 2:              |                      |                      |

3. In this lesson, you learned that to make the words meaningful, the reader must pause appropriately when reading poetry. Reread “Warren Pryor” and “Assembly Line.” Choose the poem that you prefer, and rehearse an oral reading of it. Then record yourself reading the poem.

After you’ve completed your recording, record your responses to the following questions.

- a. Why did you choose this poem for your reading?
- b. What strategies do you use to help you understand and appreciate a poem?

Be sure to check your recording to see that you’ve spoken loudly and clearly. Label your tape with your name and course number, and submit it for assessment along with this Assignment Booklet.

Reminder: Did you record your answers to both questions?

7. In this lesson, you learned some strategies to help you write free verse. Create a free verse poem after rereading the tips. Write your polished copy here.

Here are some tips to help you with this assignment:

- If you can't think of a topic, use the working world. Write about a personal experience you've had while working or about someone else whom you've observed working.
- Reread your journal entries in this section. You may find some words or phrases that you can use in a poem.
- Do some freewriting or create a web to generate ideas for your topic.
- Remember that most free verse is written in sentences. Write a descriptive paragraph; then arrange your sentences into lines of poetry. Delete words as necessary and include figurative language whenever you can.
