ASSIGNMENT BOOKLET 14

Instructions for Submitting Assignment Booklets

1. Submit Assignment Booklets regularly and only one Assignment Booklet at one time. This allows your teacher to provide comments you can apply to subsequent work.
2. Check the following before submitting each Assignment Booklet:
 - Are all assignments complete?
 - Have you edited your work to ensure accuracy of information and details?
 - Have you proofread your work to ensure correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation?
 - Did you complete the Assignment Booklet cover and attach the correct label?

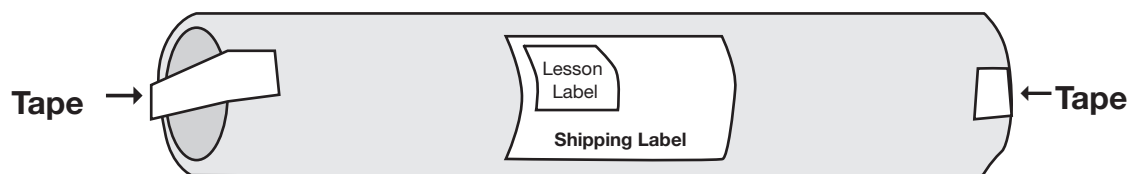

Preparing the Assignment Booklet

Ensure that the lesson number on the label is the number on the Assignment Booklet. Peel the corresponding preprinted label for the Assignment Booklet from the backing and apply it to the appropriate space on the cover page.

- Never use tape or staples to attach the label to the Assignment Booklet.
- Do not put the preprinted label on the outside of the mailing envelope.

Preparing the Mailing Envelope or Mailing Tube

- The mailing envelopes provided are pre-addressed to ADLC. Attach your return address.
- Some courses provide mailing tubes. Roll your assignment(s) and Assignment Booklet and insert them into a mailing tube. Seal the tube and apply the correct label to a shipping label provided. Affix the shipping label to the outside of the tube. When your submission is returned, you can re-use the mailing tube for subsequent lessons.

Submitting to an ADLC Campus

If you reside near an ADLC office (Barrhead, Edmonton, Calgary, or Lethbridge), you may drop your submissions directly at the office.

Using Postal Mail

Determine sufficient postage by having the envelope or tube weighed at a post office. (Envelopes less than two centimetres thick receive the most economical rate.)

Assignment Booklet 14

Advice

Your success on the assignment in this booklet determines your mark for this module. Your responses give your teacher an indication of your understanding of the course.

- Before attempting to answer the assigned questions, please read all the relevant course material carefully and completed the self-correcting activities in the module booklet.
- Proceed slowly and carefully through the assignments.
- If you encounter difficulties, review the pertinent section notes.
- If you are still having problems, please contact the course teacher at the Alberta Distance Learning Centre for assistance.
- The marks possible for each individual exercise are indicated.
- May you enjoy success in your studies!

Warning

- Failure to complete all questions and/or poor responses due to obvious lack of effort may result in your teacher returning the assignment booklet marked “incomplete”. No grading will be awarded until such exercises are completed to the teacher’s satisfaction.
- You are encouraged to discuss the various aspects of the course with others, but all work submitted should be your own.
- If there is a large discrepancy between the assignment score and the final exam score, the teacher has the discretion to assign a final mark based solely on the examination results.

Our Pledge to You

Everyone at the Alberta Distance Learning Centre is committed to helping you achieve your educational goals. We happily assist students who are sincere in their desire to learn. You may reach us by phone, fax, e-mail, voice mail, postal mail, or at an Alberta Distance Learning Centre office.

We want to help you achieve and enjoy success.

Format

You are encouraged to use a word processor for your written work.

- Format your work using an easy-to-read 12-point serif font such as Times New Roman.
- Include your full name and student file number as a document header.
- Double-space your final copy.
- Staple your printed work to this Assignment Booklet.

Avoid plagiarism by acknowledging all sources you use. Contact your teacher if you are uncertain how to document sources.

Although you are encouraged to work collaboratively and discuss various aspects of this course with others, all submitted work must be your own.

Our Pledge to Students

Alberta Distance Learning Centre is committed to helping students achieve their educational goals. We look forward to assisting students who are sincere in their desire to learn. Students may contact their course teacher(s) by phone, e-mail, fax, postal mail, or in person at an Alberta Distance Learning Centre office.

C₁₄ LESSON FOURTEEN

Value 100

Assignment 1: A Painting (or Mixed Media Artwork) in the Fauvist Style

Use the elements of art and principles of design to paint (or compose with other media - see below) a still life consisting of non-natural colours in the Fauvist style.

Paint with colours that express feelings about your chosen objects, the mood you are experiencing, or simply paint for the colours' sheer beauty. You can use items about which you have strong positive/negative feelings. Using still life objects, rather than emotionally-charged subject matter, such as figures, will force you to make an expressive statement that uses colour as the main route of expression. Your brushstrokes, textures, and lines may also add to your paintings artistic statement. Use your new knowledge of colour wheel theory and harmonious colour combinations to help you. You may use watercolours, tempera, oil pastels or coloured pencils, acrylics, or a computer to create your artwork. If working with dry media, you should also use at least one wet medium to develop a mixed media piece. This artwork should be 18" x 24". Draw a preliminary sketch of your artwork to include with your sketchbook.

Points to Ponder

1. How much effort have I put into my artwork?
2. Is my image original and creative?
3. Have I used colours in an expressive way?
4. What is the level of craftsmanship in my painting?
5. How big and complex is my still life painting?
6. How skillfully have I used the elements of art and the principles of design?
7. Have I made my artwork 18" x 24"?
