Questions for a dating couple

When you fight, what is it like?

Girl: "Not big ones, we don't have big ones, because I think we choose our battles. That's the thing."

Boy: "Yeah, choose our battles - because if it's not worth fighting over, then it's not worth fighting over."

In your relationship, who's the peacemaker?

Boy: "Yeah, the voice of reason a little bit! When she gets stressed out, I say it's not a huge deal, just step back, take a breather, it's not a huge deal for you to get stressed about something. And I don't think we would fight too often, and it's usually about if we are both stressed - if we're both overstressed we usually take a step back and go - this isn't worth getting all worked up over."

What are your most special times together?

Girl: "Home. Just sitting at home, watching TV and movies and playing video games sometimes. Talking - like we don't do lots of dates and stuff, just..."

Boy: "Yeah, it's like the odd day that we'll go out for dinner or something and then we'll go back and watch our favourite movie, and just talk a lot, that's the biggest thing - if you can talk with a person."

Where do you spend leisure time... a rave?

Boy: "No!"

Girl: "No, we're lazy."

Boy: "No, no... I'd be more like going out with friends on a weekend, I'd never bring a couple there."

Girl: "And, we like quiet places."

Boy: "Yeah"

Girl: "That's not very personal either, because you know you're surrounded by people, and..."

Boy: "...and anything can happen, and you can get lost easily."

Girl: "Yeah, probably not."

Where do you spend leisure time... a restaurant?

Girl: "Yeah!"

Boy: "Yeah!"

Girl: "Yeah, we've done that before, like we've gone to BP's and restaurants and stuff, and like it's fun and it's good food, and you're in public which is sort of fun but it's also sort of personal, you know what I mean? You can talk, and have fun and stuff like that, but it's still personal."

Where do you spend leisure time... skydiving?

Girl: "Uh...NO!"

Boy: "I'd do it! I'd love to do it!"

Girl: "I'm terrified of heights. It's kind of cool to have an adrenaline rush with them, but personally I wouldn't do it because it's scary."

Boy: "Yeah, not you're thing?"

Girl: "Not my thing!"

Boy: "I'd love to do it I think!"

Girl: "The whole doing something adventurous together thing is kind of cool but..."

Boy: "I'd do skydiving, I think that's great! I'd love to do it, probably by myself then!"

What keeps your relationship strong?

Girl: "Nobody trusts people one hundred percent, but, you kind of have to let that go when you're in a relationship, I find. Another thing is just having fun and not taking it too seriously and not thinking you have to be together all the time, just being together and enjoying the time you have together, because I find that it's more special almost when you enjoy that time and then you take breaks, and then you enjoy the time again, it feels really special and fun, and good."
