

1.1 Formative Sentence Structure Review Worksheet

/20

1. List three things you should not do when you are writing sentences.

/3

- A.
- B.
- C.

2. Define the following: /2

A. Independent clause:

B. Dependent clause:

3. List the three types of sentences: /3

- A.
- B.
- C.

4. List three methods of joining related independent clauses in a compound sentence: /3

- A.
- B.
- C.

5. Write one simple sentence. Identify the subject and predicate of each by placing the subject in blue font and predicate in red font. /1

A.

6. Write a compound sentence using a comma + conjunction to join Ideas. Use red font for the joiner and use a different coloured font for each independent clause (remember they must be independent).

/2

7. Write a compound sentence using a semicolon to join Ideas. Use red font for the joiner and use a different coloured font for each independent clause (remember they must be independent).

/2

8. Write a compound sentence using a dash to join ideas. Use red font for the joiner and use a different coloured font for each independent clause (remember they must be independent). /2

9. Write a complex sentence. Use red font to show the independent clause and use a different coloured font to show the dependent clause. /2