

Negligence Law - LGS3040

Final Project

Read the following carefully before you proceed to the assignment.

1. If you are working on this project with another student, who is enrolled in the same ADLC course, you MUST EMAIL your lead teacher to provide this information BEFORE your work is submitted for grading.
2. Be sure to submit this correctly completed project to the course assignment submit page in Moodle, as required by ADLC. The instructions on how to do this are included in your welcome email (sent to you when you enrolled in this course). DO NOT email your work to your lead teacher.
3. Be sure your work is submitted in the proper format (Microsoft Word/Power Pt, PDF or Google Doc/Slides). If you use Google, remember to either; convert your work to Word/Power Pt/PDF; or, if you are sharing a link, make sure you make it “public” and provide “edit” privileges so your work can be accessed for grading.
4. Be sure to proof-read your work and use spell check.
5. Please do not be shy about contacting your lead teacher with your questions!
6. Conclusion: Once you have submitted your work in Moodle, remember that it is your responsibility to check for feedback on your work. Feedback will be left before giving a failing grade or if you are missing work, so that you can have one more attempt to improve your work.
Be sure to check!

Total Marks:

Comments:

Final Project	/30
Total Percentage	/100

Final Project

Contact your lead teacher if you need help choosing your project.

Report (Graded out of 30 marks)

Choose a case that relates directly to Negligence Law. You may choose a non-Canadian case BUT be sure you relate the case you choose to Canadian Law and your Legal Studies course.

You may use the following sources:

- Internet
- Television
- Books
- Magazine Articles
- Movies
- Newspaper Articles

In addition, you may use an event (fiction or non-fiction) that involves people who are not famous. Or, you may use a case that involves famous people such as politicians, musicians, actors, or sports figures.

Your report MUST be in your own words!

Please refer to "ADLC Plagiarism Policy" and "Sharing of ADLC Work" documents, located in this course under the "Course Introduction" section.

Be sure to cite your sources – remember that any information that you use from any source such as a book, the internet, magazine articles, or newspaper articles is information that someone else has written, and therefore the source must be included in your report.

For example, if you are using:

- Internet                      - Provide the website link
- Book                         - Provide the name of the book and the author's name
- Newspaper Article - Provide the name of the newspaper
                                         - Date, name and author of the article
- Magazine Article - Provide the name of the magazine
                                         - Date, name and author of the article

The Report – What needs to be in your report?

1. Minimum length of 2, double-spaced, typed pages. Maximum length of 4, double-spaced, typed pages.

/2 marks

2. Short introductory paragraph which clearly identifies the case you have chosen, and why you feel it relates to Canadian Negligence Law.

/2 marks

3. A summary of the events of the topic you have chosen.

/10 marks

Your summary MUST include the following:

- Who is the case about?
- What happened?
- Where did the events take place?
- When did the events take place?
- Why did the events take place – in other words, what caused the events to happen?

4. Your opinion of the case.

/6 marks

Your opinion MUST include the following:

- If a legal decision was reached, do you agree or disagree with it?
- If a legal decision was reached, why do you agree or disagree with it?
- If no legal decision was reached, what would you decide, and why?
- Which facts/events in the case did you find the most interesting, and why?

5. One concluding paragraph.

/8 marks

Your concluding paragraph MUST include the following:

- a) 4 Negligence Law legal concepts, of your choice, from the course.
- b) Explain how each concept relates directly to the case you chose.

6. Cite your sources.

/2 marks