

Rights and Responsibilities of Citizenship

Citizen

A citizen is a person who belongs to and is protected by a nation/country. A citizen is either born in the nation or given citizenship by the government.

1. Canada is often described as being a great place to live, as compared with other countries in the world. Brainstorm what being a Canadian citizen means to you.

