

SOCIAL STUDIES 9 UNIT 2: SECTION 1

Journal Entry: Consequences of Committing a Crime

Answer the following questions. Type your responses between the blue brackets provided.

Be sure to provide support for your ideas.

Read the scoring criteria below the questions to assess your work.

1. In a paragraph, explain why it is important for young offenders to receive consequences swiftly for their actions.

< >

2. In a paragraph, explain why it is important to make up for wrong actions that affect others.

< >

Save your completed journal entry to your Activities folder.

Scoring Criteria: Journal Entry

I have . . .	Relevance of Information
Excellent	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• provided thoughtful ideas and thorough explanations• provided specific, relevant, and accurate support for my ideas• written clearly, accurately, and effectively with well-organized ideas
Proficient	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• provided meaningful ideas and appropriate explanations• provided relevant and appropriate support for my ideas• written in an organized way with effective vocabulary and few errors
Satisfactory	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• provided straightforward ideas and general explanations• provided general and adequate support for my ideas• written satisfactorily (Minor errors do not interfere with the message.)
Limited	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• provided limited ideas with simplistic or unnecessary explanations• provided obvious and/or irrelevant support for my ideas• written unclearly with inappropriate vocabulary (Major errors interfere with the message.)
Poor	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• provided few or no ideas• provided superficial, irrelevant, or incomplete support for my ideas• written unclearly with disorganized ideas (Many errors interfere with the message.)