Chapter 4 Summary

The Fur Trade

First Nations Merchants

The First Nations Women:

- Preparing furs
- Working in the forts
- Working on the road

The French Fur Trade

- Based in New France
- Travelled to First Nations to trade
- Travelled by canoe from Montreal to Rocky Mountains

The English Fur Trade

- Based in England
- Required First Nations to bring furs to English forts
- Travelled by canoe from Albany Factory to the Rocky Mountains
- Used canoes, but not extensively