

8.10 Outline

Write about the complexity of this issue/ significance of the issue/Why is this issue so complex?

What large theme from the course does this issue fit into?

Identity+ ideology? Individualism, collectivism +common good? Origins of liberalism? Rejecting liberalism? Democracy and economic equality? The viability of liberalism- Ideology and citizenship or is it Taking action.

What foundational concepts can you apply to this complex issue?

Principles of Liberalism? Values of collective and individual? Economic spectrum? Economic

Apply the issue to liberalism. What aspects? Why?

Relate perspectives to the spectrums. Which ones? Why?

Does this complicate society? How so? Why?

Suggestions for success:

- Do not skip this paragraph
- Make it 5-7 sentences
- Use course terminology
- Close with a thesis around the fact there is multiple perspectives on the matter.

Perspectives

How might perspectives differ?

What are one or more viewpoints on this issue?

You may paraphrase parts of the prompts or not.

The more you move beyond the prompt of citizens the better.

Provide some examples to support differing perspectives.

Suggestions for success:

- Do not skip this paragraph
- Make it 5-7 sentences
- Use course terminology
- Do not straight copy down the citizen prompts. That is called cribbing and gets you no marks.

Your position

Pick a position yes or no. Why?

Arguing in the middle is not picking a position.

Argue by applying collective or individual values to the position.

Present plausible examples to support your position.

Use course examples, current events, countries, leaders, and ideologies.

Suggestions for success:

- Do not skip this paragraph
- Make it 5-7 sentences
- Use course terminology
- Pick a position

Feedback