Chapter 4 Summary

development of the scientific method Science significant advances in all branches of science invention of the printing press People began to question the power and leadership of the Catholic Church. Religion Savonarola preached against Church corruption. How did the Renaissance Martin Luther separated from the Catholic Church and created the Protestant Reformation. spark the growth and exchange of More people became involved in government. ideas across Europe? The people wanted strong leadership to bring peace Leadership and stability to their city states. leadership choices and styles. Humanist beliefs affected the work of artists and all types of art began to change. Craftsmen began to be recognized as artists and their Arts work was in great demand. The study of classic texts and sharing of scientific knowledge influenced the arts.