Chapter 8 Summary

Each rank of people had its own responsibility. All contributed to the good of the Empire. Social Structure Organizational units called calpolli. Calpolli collected taxes and kept the neighbourhood in good shape. After age 3, children had to be hard working and obedient. All Aztec children went to school. All schooling Aztec Social was free. Structure: Education The good of society is more Boys took military training. important than the individual. Students in calmecac studied codices to learn about Aztec society. Paying taxes was a very important part of Merchants traded and spied for the government. Citizenship Responsibilities Farmers grew crops for themselves and for the Citizens were expected to donate hours of work to the state.