 Assessment	Areas of strength: Lola, your flow chart is a really effective visual way of representing this character's life path! The colour coding is helpful in conveying which choices the character actually made and which choices were hypothetical. You did a great job of showing the potential outcomes of the character's choices to illustrate the impact of his bullying. Your choice of the magnifying glass as a symbol was an effective one. It clarifies the impact bullying has had on the character and explains why the character wants to change. The explanatory paragraph you included was very helpful in elaborating on the flow chart and showing the character's thoughts and feelings. You captured his voice very well. Might I suggest: You have a tendency to use a lot of long and complex sentences. When you mix in some shorter sentences with the long ones, it really improves the flow of the paragraph for the reader and makes it enjoyable to read.
