 Assessment	Areas of strength: Darcy, I think it's fantastic that you decided to choose an online application to complete your project. Your Animoto presentation looks very professional and visually appealing. I like that you included both still images as well as animated clips. Those selections along with your song choice made for an emotionally powerful vision board that conveyed Wes Holman's story quite effectively. Your explanatory paragraph really enhanced your assignment. It allowed me to understand your project better and see just how well you understood both the story and the character. Might I suggest: A few more visuals and text on your vision board might have helped you communicate Wes' vision before and after his encounters with Miss Tretheway a bit more thoroughly, and I was a little unclear about your reason for choosing the balloon image at the end. I would have liked more explanation there.
