

Unit 3

Name:

Date:

Reader's Notebook: Looking for Signal Words and Phrases

Part 1

While watching the movie, Cause and Effect, you will explore different examples of cause and effect within a sentence. This video will introduce you to signal words and phrases that will help you identify causes and effects in text. Record these signal words and phrases below:

--

Part 2

As you read Ask an Astronaut on pages 152 to 156 of Literacy in Action, look for examples of cause and effect and sequencing words such as: when, because, after, as, and eventually. Copy sentences into spaces below, then identify the cause, effect and sequencing words in each. Use the two examples as a guide.

Example:

Sentence: Because the computer was unplugged, it was not working.

Cause: The computer was unplugged.

Effect: It was not working.

Sequencing Words: Because

Sentence:
Cause:
Effect:
Sequencing Words:

Sentence:
Cause:
Effect:
Sequencing Words:

Sentence:
Cause:
Effect:
Sequencing Words:

Sentence:	In space, since we are weightless, nothing ever falls to the floor.
Cause:	we are weightless,
Effect:	nothing ever falls to the floor
Sequencing Words:	since

Save Your File

Name your file in this format: jsmith_signals and save your file to your Documents folder.