6-1 Section 1: Focus on What

Complete the assignment below.

Identify an object from the past that tells a story such as an object that you have always loved, or an heirloom such as jewelry, furniture, painting, or a decoration from a parent, grandparent, or great grandparent. It should spark a memory or be a reminder of the past. It may be an object that was lost or found.

Answer the following 5W and H questions (Who, What, When, Where, Why, and How) using a historian's eye.

If you know a lot about the object, answer in complete sentences below. If it is an object you need to learn about, interview someone in your family about it, using the questions below.

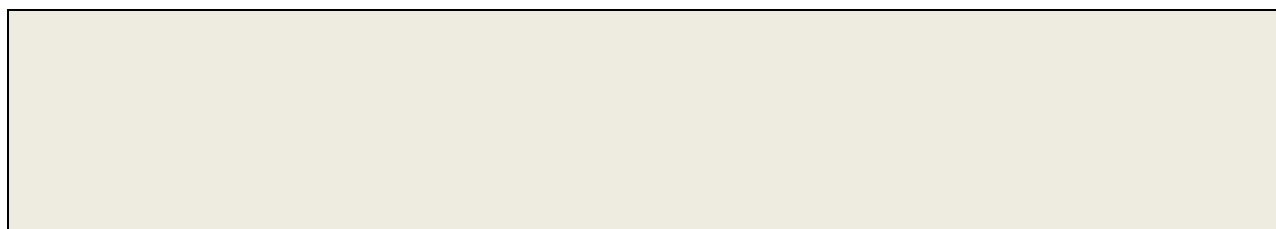

Instructions

Ensure that you answer the bullet points in your response.

- What is the object?
- To whom does the object belong? To whom did the object belong first?
- Where did the object come from?
- When did the object come into your family? When was the object made?
- Why is the object so treasured?
- How would you describe the object? Use interesting details that appeal to the senses.
- Include a picture or drawing of the object to add interest and detail.
