

3.1 Decode: Just Send It Worksheet

Answer the following question before viewing the short film. Please provide evidence to support your ideas, whether it is your personal experiences (of you or someone you know) or from a news article.

1. Do girls have a more negative experience in the online realm than boys? State the ideas you have that support your answer, and provide examples to support these ideas. /4 marks

Answer the following questions after you have viewed the short film "Just Send It".

1. Is this story realistic? Could a similar situation happen in your school or an Albertan school? Explain. Provide an example, if you can think of one. /4 marks

2. Abi was reluctant at first to send to image to Josh. What made her change her mind? /3 marks

3. Why did Josh ask for the photo? Did he feel any pressure to have images like this? /3 marks

4. Did Abi give consent for her photo to be shared around the school? In this situation, who is more at fault-- Josh, Abi, or Brandon? Anyone else? /4 marks

5. Do you think Josh respected Abi? How can you tell if a boyfriend, girlfriend or friend respects you? /5 marks

6. Some of the comments under Abi's photo are quite mean. None of them seem to portray Josh in a negative light. Do you think there are different standards between girls and boys (e.g. if a guy shares a picture versus if a girl shares a picture)? Review the first question you were asked on the worksheet. Have you changed your mind? Elaborate on your answer further here, if you feel it still applies. /4 marks

7. Abi receives a naked picture of Josh first. What would happen if Abi decided to share this picture with others? /3 marks

8. What do you think of the comment that Eve makes when she says, "Gotta keep your man happy"? Is this how girls can feel; that they must keep their boyfriends or friends happy? /4 marks

9. Why does Josh mention possible involvement from the police at the end of the film? Who do you think broke the law in the film? /4 marks

10. Instead of sharing the naked photo, what could Abi have done to let Josh know that although she likes him, she doesn't want to send him a compromising photo? /4 marks

11. What could the other characters have done to help Abi? /3 marks

12. Make a prediction about what happens “next” in the film. What happens when Abi goes back to school? What happens when Abi meets Josh for the first time, afterwards? Would Abi even want to meet with Josh again? /5 marks

Total Marks: /50

Additional Comments: