5.1 My Comic: PROFILE OPTION 1
Characters	Conflict	Setting	Resolution
Ted: shy quiet boy; just started Grade 10; not used to older students; doesn't like confrontation Arthur: loud, outgoing Grade 11 student; sometimes seen as aggressive; not always nice but usually has good intentions	Create a conflict appropriate to the setting and characters. What characteristics may conflict with those of others? Arthur walks with confident swagger; just received bad news about his English grade; Ted, not a friend, is first person Arthur sees while absorbing bad news; needing someone to listen, Arthur vents loudly about his problems; Ted interprets this as bullying: he's worried, confused, intimidated by Arthur's behaviour.	Panel 1: school hallway; first thing in the morning Panel 2: school hallway; later, in Ted's first class Panel 3: after school off school grounds	How might your created conflict be resolved? How will you arrange details in the last panel to show a resolution of the problem? Complete the last panel. Add your details here:
Your Audience What language (formal, casual, technical, etc.) and attitudes familiar to your audience will you use? pre-teens/teenagers; will use slang and direct, simple language; attitude of distrust between peers
