

Social Studies 20-1

Course Outline

Teacher: Mr. Adam McRae

Email: amcrae@rvschools.ab.ca

Phone: TBD

Overview of Course: Students will explore the complexities of nationalism in Canadian and international contexts. They will study the origins of nationalism and the influence of nationalism on regional, international and global relations. The infusion of multiple perspectives will allow students to develop understandings of nationalism and how nationalism contributes to the citizenship and identities of peoples in Canada.

Related Issues	General Outcomes
To what extent should nation be the foundation of identity?	Students will explore the relationships among identity, nation and nationalism.
To what extent should national interest be pursued?	Students will assess impacts of nationalism, ultranationalism and the pursuit of national interest
To what extent should internationalism be pursued?	Students will assess impacts of the pursuit of internationalism in contemporary global affairs
To what extent should individuals and groups in Canada embrace a national identity?	Students will assess strategies for negotiating the complexities of nationalism within the Canadian context.

Deadlines:

- October 31st is end of Q1 – maintain pace to stay on track
- January 15th is the final day for turning in assignments

Textbooks/Resources: Exploring Nationalism

Evaluation

- Assignments 80%
 - 50% Major Assignments
 - 30% Minor Assignments
 - Assignments will be identified as major or minor as we progress through the semester
- Quizzes 20%
- “Unit Exams” were once given as a summative assignment, these are being re-evaluated given the limitations of online only learning. If they are assigned, they will be included as “major assignments”
- If a final exam is given (unsure due to the limitations of online learning) it will be worth 30% of your total mark.